Requiem aeternam dona ei, Domine.

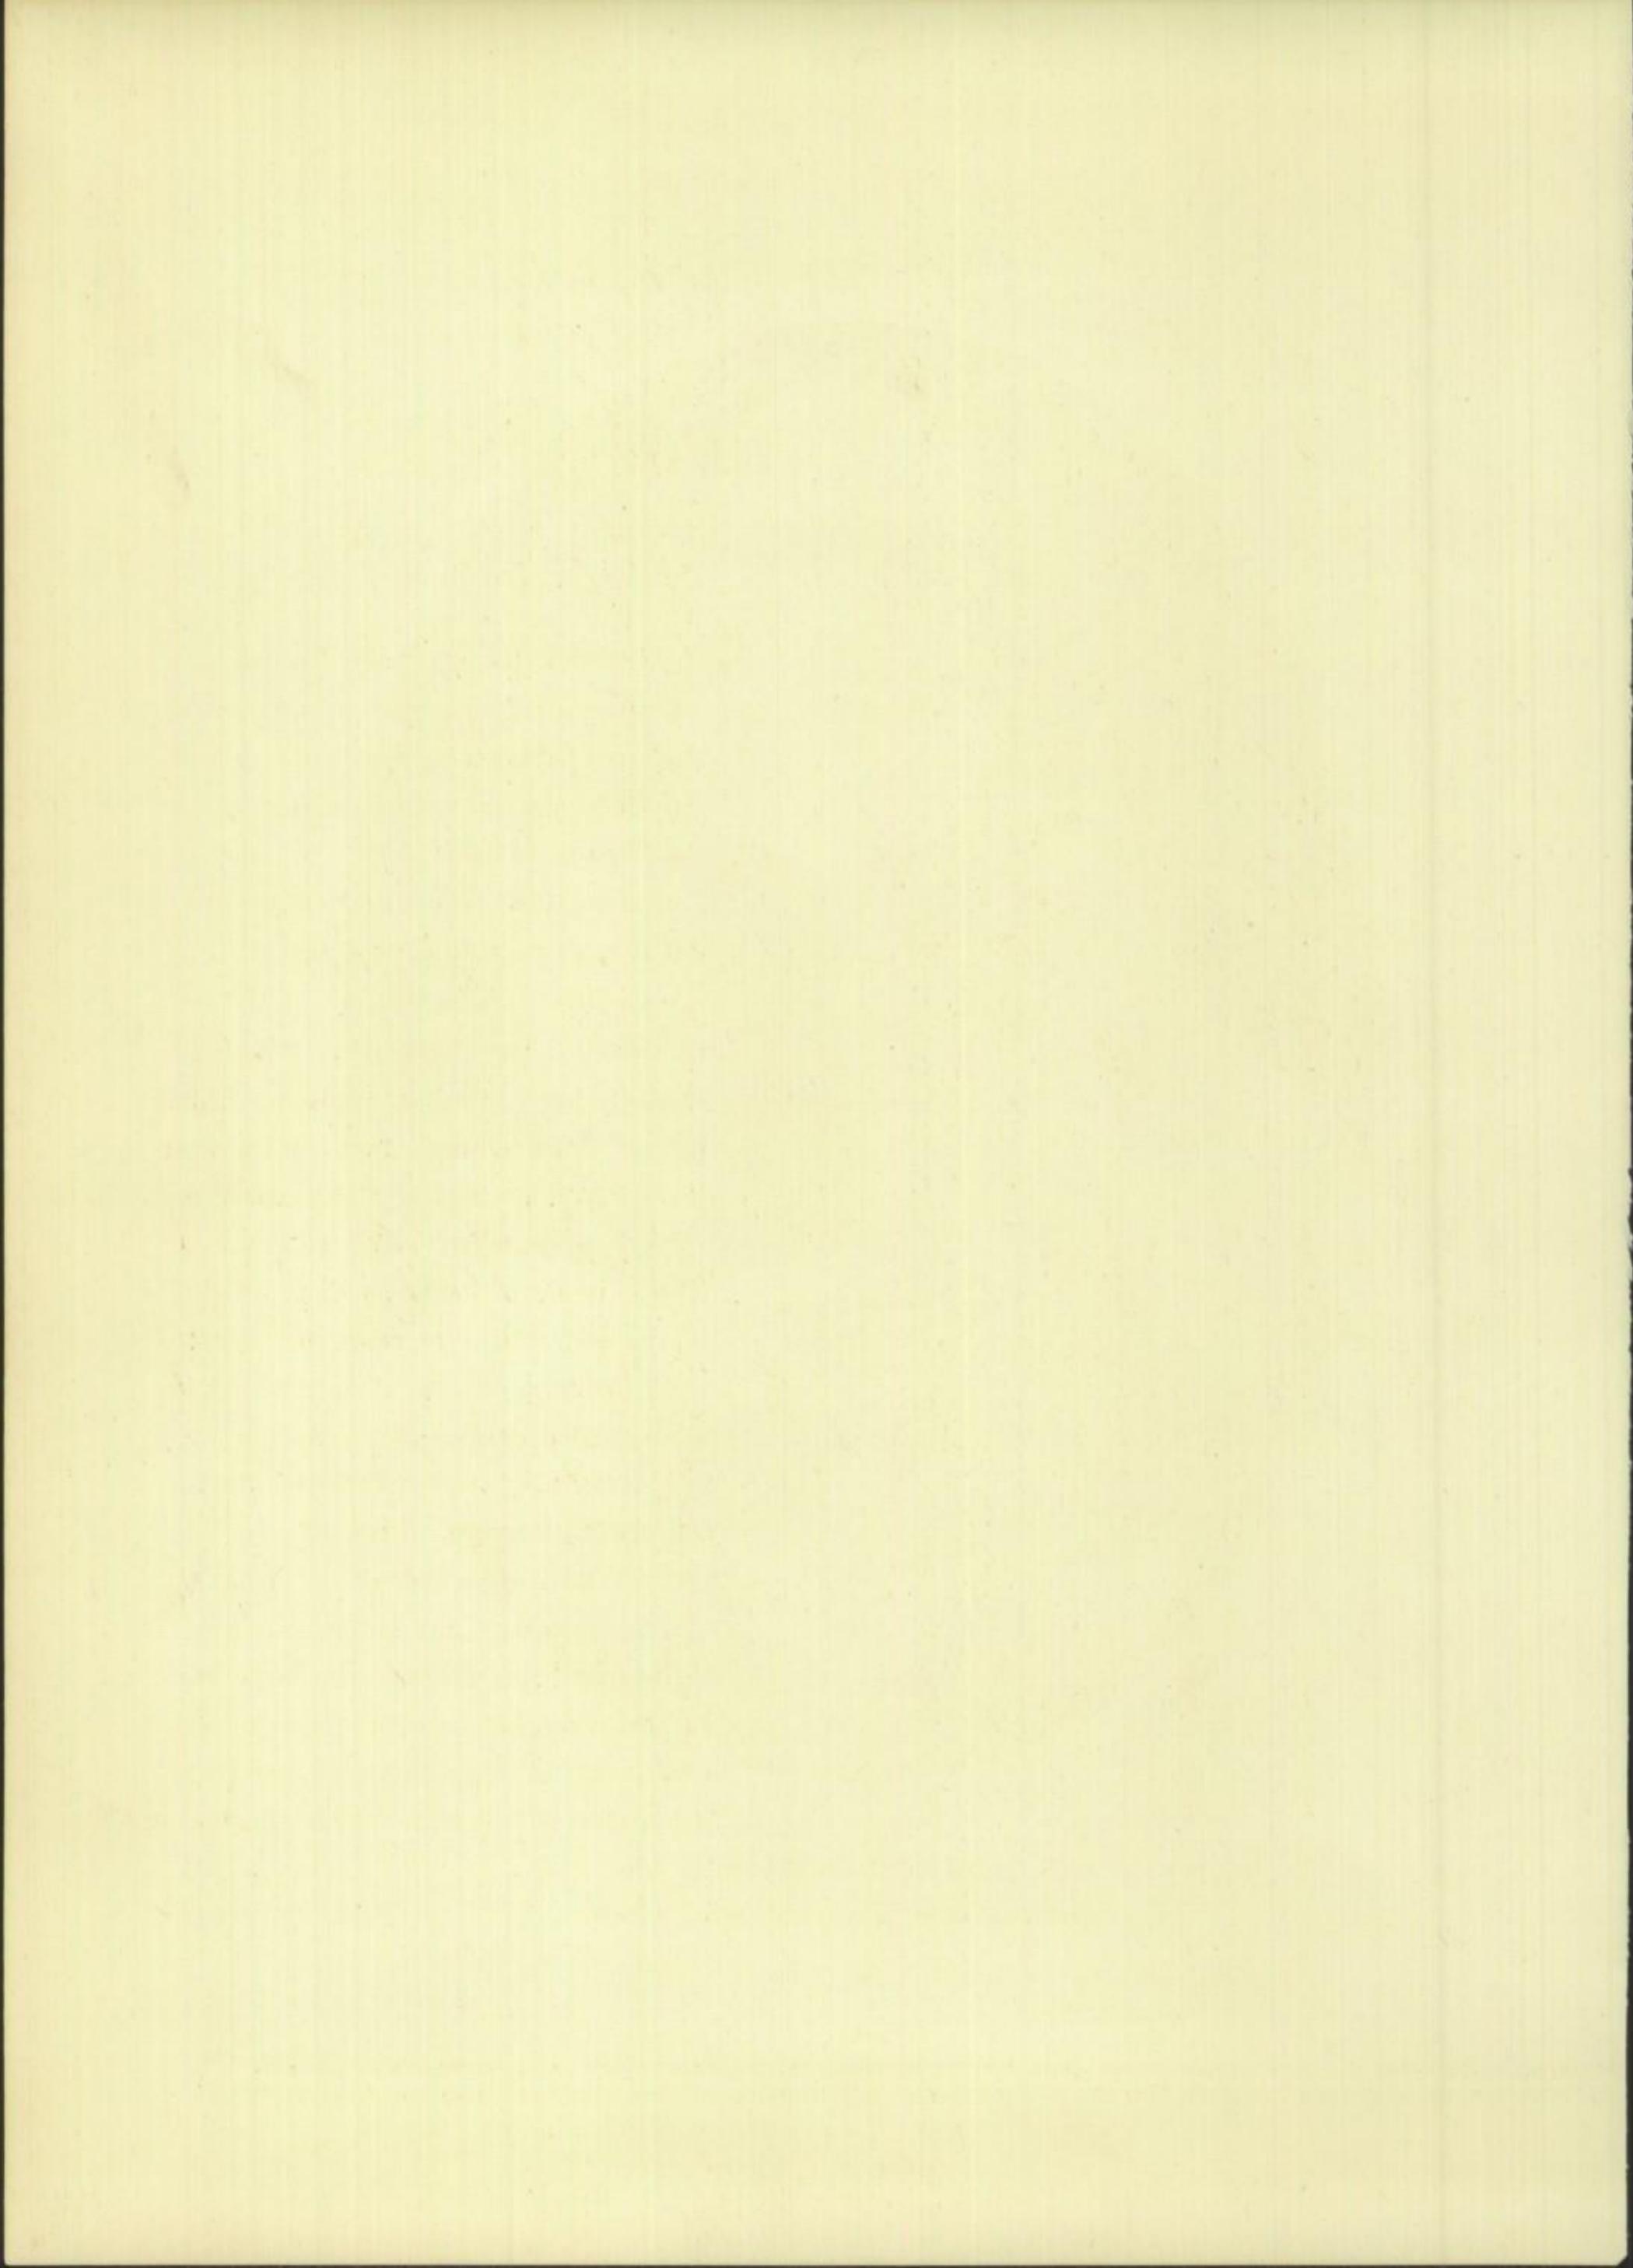

Death, on October 9, 1958, ended the nineteen-year Pontificate of Pius XII—the most glorious reign in the history of the Holy Roman Catholic Church.

PRAYER

O God, Who by Thine unspeakable Providence wast pleased to number Thy servant, Pope Pius XII, among the Supreme Pontiffs, grant, we beseech Thee, that he who reigned as the Vicar of Thy only-begotten Son on earth, may be united with Thy holy Pontiffs forevermore. Amen.

Our Holy Father
HIS HOLINESS POPE PIUS XII
Two Hundred Sixty-second Pontiff

From Eternity comes Saint Joseph . . .

OUR PATRON, to look in on our commercial-academic education — that investment which was made available to us by our parents' self-sacrifice and love.

Saint Joseph, our model for work and worship, throughout our four years, has watched, with satisfaction, our progress in our studies; our deeper, holier high school experiences; our life, which is directed by and to God, which is secure only when we face up to things that can happen to us; which is to take with us into our world that training of an educated mind and strong will;—and our joys in the limitless procession of social activities hurried through at our typical teen-age tempo.

The record of our work, our worship, our high school life, and our extra-curricular activities, under the guidance of Our Patron, are here presented in this our '59 Parmentier.

THE PARMENTIER MEMORIAL

382 Bridge Street

Brooklyn, New York

J shall raise up for myself a faithful priest."

Our Holy Father

HIS HOLINESS POPE JOHN XXIII
Two Hundred Sixty-third Pontiff

A conclave of Cardinals, under the guidance of the Holy Ghost, selected a new Vicar of Christ, to ascend the throne of Saint Peter. As the white smoke rose from the Basilica, the world rejoiced and we, at Saint Joseph's, joined in that rejoicing by pledging with the children of the faith our unwavering fealty, obedience and love.

Devoutly we pray that Almighty God will enlighten his mind and guide his hand and heart safely, through the many difficulties and afflictions which today endanger the lives and faith of mankind.

Our Bishop

Twice honored was our school by the presence of our bishop and, on both occasions, it was at the Congress of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine held in the classrooms of our three school buildings. Usherettes from Saint Joseph's directed visitors to the various panels of the convention. His Excellency who greeted the guests in a general assembly in the auditorium said in part, "I hope that this congress will strengthen parish confraternities and societies . . ." and ". . . it is imperative that teachers actively participate so that many souls may be saved . . ."

HIS EXCELLENCY BRYAN J. McENTEGART
Bishop of Brooklyn

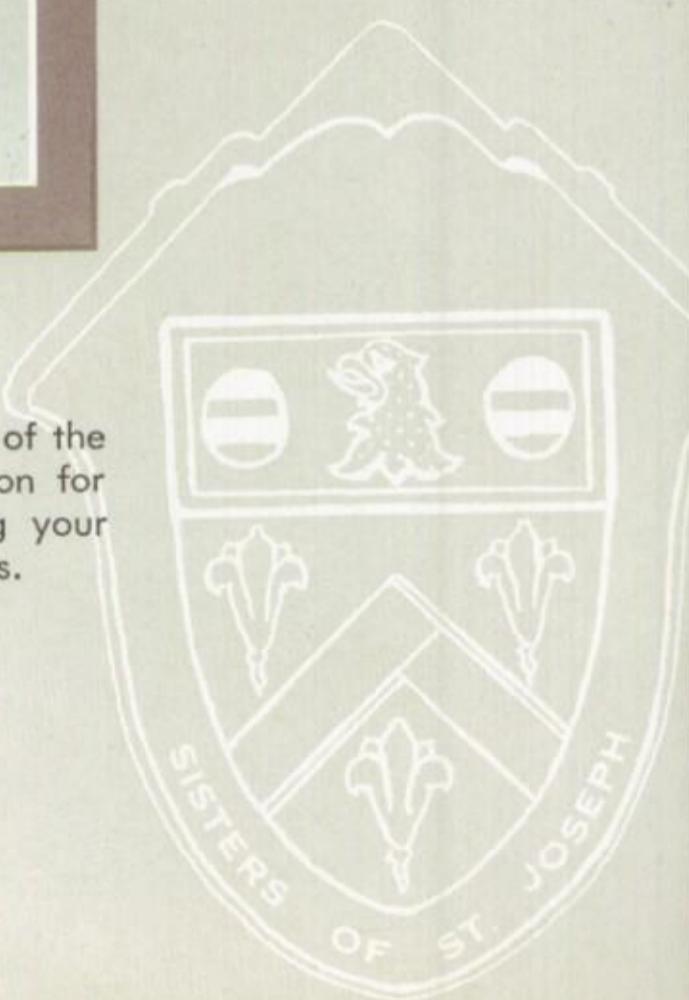

Our Principal

SISTER MARY REGINA

To you, Sister Mary Regina, we, the class of June '59, on behalf of the student body and our own, wish to express our deep appreciation for your kindness and your understanding supervision of us during your administration, in the last three of our four years, at Saint Joseph's.

Our Grade Advisers

ST
FOR

For four years, our senior advisers—Sister Margaret Vincent, Sister Mary Avila, Sister Elizabeth Irene—have followed with interest and concern our intellectual advancement from our freshmen days. Besides "pouring oil on troubled waters," and guiding our course through our high school years, they have planned and ironed out snags in our program, kept and checked our records, scored averages and decided sequences, and were "public relations in operation" between official and subject teachers, the medical department and the general office.

Each of the four years have grade advisers who carry out the same program of helping underclassmen to "carry on" capably and efficiently. Sister Miriam Augusta, Sister Saint Eugene, Junior Advisers; Sister Catherine Maria, Sister Irene de Lourdes, Sophomore Advisers; Sister Francis Audrey, Sister Regina Immaculate, Freshmen Advisers.

FACULTY

They develop qualities that will last forever.

TWO OF OUR PRIEST FACULTY: Reverend John J. Johnston and Reverend Edward J. Lawrie.

Supplementing the course in Religion—the study of the Mass, the Sacraments, the Old and New Testaments and Church History—the priests of our faculty, Father Johnston, Father Lawrie and Father Sullivan, instruct seniors and juniors on the Papal Encyclicals "On Christian Marriage" and "On Education." They also hear Confessions, give counsel and offer encouragement to those who seek assistance.

General Office

Sister Consolata Maria and Sister Grace Loretta.

Here at Saint Joseph's, smooth operation is the natural result of the efficient service of our office staff.

Sister Consolata Maria has the unending task of recording and checking attendance. Sister Grace Loretta manages transcripts of records, admissions and transfers, stencils of examinations and visitors to the school. Miss Frances Brady does the clerical work as well as the uncounted messages that come through the switchboard.

In recognition of the cooperation of these patient efficient "secretaries in action," we say a heartfelt, "thank you."

Distribution of rings by Sister Irene de Lourdes and the blessing of them by Father Lawrie made October 14 and January 28 unforgettable dates. That treasured symbol of loyalty to school and all it stands for evoked the "ohs" and "ahs" of underclassmen and thrilled the "Girl of the Day."

"HAS OUR DREAM REALLY COME TRUE?" say happy seniors of the accelerated class of Senior Ten after a party lunch in the cafeteria.

"IN NOMINE" . . . intones Father Lawrie as he blesses ring of G.O. President Ann Marie Walz following assembly ceremony of the blessing of the rings of eleven senior classes.

"I'M THE OTHER PAT!" explains Patricia Gallagher to Sister Irene de Lourdes as she looks at the "other Patricia Gallagher's" ring on her finger.

"MINE FOR KEEPS," muses P. Higgins as she admires her new ring.

"IT'S OURS!" Former Editor A. Milaccio holds Trophy Award. Editor P. Giordano, C. La Plante and B. Kempczinska of the '59 Staff of the newspaper, PAMENTIER, are happy about it, too.

"WHAT A BEAUTIFUL PIECE OF MARBLE!" A. Fiore, R. Romeo, A. Calo, F. Niedbalski pose before historic memento in Philadelphia.

Washington-

One Fabulous Week-end.

Buses housed seniors on four-day trip to Washington. First stop—Philadelphia. Here the day was spent inspecting historic sites, notably Independence Hall, Betsy Ross' Home, and Benjamin Franklin Institute.

We viewed such inspiring highlights in Washington as the Capitol, the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, Smithsonian Institute, and Arlington Cemetery for the changing of the guards. Crossing the Potomac, our guides recalled early life in Virginia.

Two tours—one in the Fall, another in the Spring—had to be arranged because of the large groups who registered. The Spring trip included a visit to reconstructed Jamestown, and Williamsburg, Virginia.

"WE JUST MADE IT!" Seniors record the impressive Changing of the Guards, at Arlington Cemetery, Virginia.

THE BEAUTY OF IT ALL. Sister Helen Virginia and students exchange comments on beautiful interior of White House as they leave its scenic approach.

LATE FRIDAY NIGHT! V. Krauza, M. A. Noto, D. Villar are highlighted by Nation's Capitol, on the night of October 29.

"AND HERE WE SEE" Sister Francis Audrey and group listening to the ever-old-ever-new facts from guide in Statuary Room in Nation's Capitol.

RED LETTER DAY—Disc Jockey keeps things lively at the Senior Dance, November 22, for C. Volpe, C. La Plante, M. Varvaro, A. M. Walz, G. Halikias and their escorts.

May Crowning

"BRING FLOWERS OF THE RAREST . . ." sing the juniors in the auditorium at their coronation ceremony.

WITH LOVE . . . May Queen places crown on statue of Our Lady of Fatima while students sing "O Mary, we crown thee . . ."

AFTER BENEDICTION. May Queen leads attendants, students in procession to the main building after ceremony.

HOMAGE TO A QUEEN. Flower girls and attendants look to the Queen of the May as May Queen offers floral crown in the name of the faculty, student body and underclassmen.

To be the May Queen and the one to crown Our Lady is the hope of every senior. In formal pastels, the juniors and seniors follow the May Queen to the Shrine of Our Lady of Fatima, on the Convent grounds, for the Coronation ceremony.

Sophomores and freshmen have separate ceremonies in the school auditorium. The Rosary, hymns and consecration to Our Lady is followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Senior Day-

Clad in the beauty of a thousand stars.

SENIOR DAY. Toy bunny makes with a "wink" as Jean Amore models Prom gown.

"Visions of loveliness." That's what underclassmen said of their older sisters on Senior Day. But who could blame them for they surely looked lovely.

Hours sped that day. It was due to the enjoyment seniors experienced autographing caps and dogs, clever skits dramatized, reading of Class History, Prophecies, and the Last Will and Testament. After a party luncheon, the singing of the Alma Mater in candlelight added that "just-right" touch to the morning festivities.

At five that evening, the faculty feted the seniors at their traditional dinner held in the magic settings of cafeteria and auditorium. It was a wonderful night—that day!

"WILL YOU HAVE SOME CREAM? BUNS? COFFEE?" ask hostesses L. Etting, C. Lacagnino, at the Communion Breakfast, the morning of THE day of days.

DEAR ALMA MATER! It won't be long now say happy and weepy seniors—guests of the faculty at a catered dinner held in cafeteria.

THE PARTY'S OVER. The autograph dog watches over the cap and shoes awaiting the weary owner's return.

General Organization

FORWARD MARCH . . . On Washington trip planned by G.O., seniors march into the camera after viewing the beautiful Potomac River at Mount Vernon.

STAIRWAY STARLETS! At the Junior Dance, girls and their escorts, P. Albert B. Chini, M. Carita, E. Cappodora, and B. Collica, record a magic moment.

SHALL WE DANCE? Senior Dance guests, C. Volpe, J. Williams, A. Walz, M. Varvaro, F. Niedbalski, and L. Mini, and their escorts do a lively step during the Mexican Hat Dance.

Officers of the General Organization—intermediaries between faculty and student body—are selected from the eleven senior classes. These representatives discuss plans for the social calendar during the year.

President Ann Marie Walz and council have successfully carried out plans for senior and underclassmen dances, the Washington, D. C., trip and Rye Beach sail. The Senior Prom arrangements wound up a successful administration of the '59 organization.

A DANCE? A TRIP? The Spring Officers of the General Organization, A. Walz, President, C. Lufty, Secretary, D. Fiore, Vice-President, and M. Gentile, Treasurer, plan calendar of social events.

Student Service League

"YOU'RE ASSIGNED TO" . . . says President J. Guadagno as she calls out posts for Student Service League on stairways during the three lunch periods.

"ATTENTION, PLEASE . . . We're here to discuss enforcement measures for better cooperation in corridors on all floors," says S.S.L. President, J. Guadagno.

Guardians of Stairways, Corridors and Cafeteria, they maintain order, conduct meetings weekly and adopt measures for insuring better cooperation from the student body. Under Moderator Sister Loretta Gertrude, Josephine Guadagno as president has shown that she has a real sense of responsibility in her capacity as president.

"WELL DONE, GIRLS!" . . . Sister M. Gonzaga praises efficiency of Parmentier Student Service League at their posts.

OFF TO DUTY . . . Smiling and poised are these Student Service League freshmen as they ascend stairway to assigned tasks.

Our Library

BREAKING THROUGH THE TIME BARRIER. J. Guadagno, R. Giuliano, C. Mase, L. Pane, D. Kosior and B. Janowicz are preparing for the after-school avalanche.

"A RICH FIELD IN BIOGRAPHY," say R. Jannello, F. Azukas, M. Barbieri as they brief their successors G. Franks, M. McAllister, M. Delissa, and B. Fralen on library "know-how."

Perhaps, next to the Chapel, the library is the most important place in the entire school. On the shelves of both libraries—main building and the Parmentier Annex—are to be found stores of infinite riches for the inquiring intellect and "round-the-clock" readers.

Library Pages, aides to Sister Saint Maurice, librarian, "take-over" the chores of typing, filing and checking on overdue books, so that Sister can keep the spotlight on the National Library Week slogan—"Wake Up And Read"—by guiding reading selections, directing bibliography choices, and suggesting the "right book for the right mood."

Sister De Chantel Maria, assistant librarian, keeps students informed about the facts learned in the study of Library Science.

FOCUS'S ON FILING. P. Cosentino points out facts to J. McBride as M. Black checks on E. Guinans' filing. R. Dillon, P. McClymont, M. Brown demonstrate absorption by concentration on their reading.

SKIMMING THE NEW BOOKS are G. Halikas, A. Rose, L. Gagliardi, S. Delisle, and C. Peterson.

Our Dances

PLAYPEN VOGUE. Teabags, balloons, lamp shades were the hat fashions of Freshmen at their Initiation Dance. Moneytree headgear won the prize for the most spectacular hat.

DISC JOCKEY made it lively for the juniors at their dance held in the auditorium, October, from nine to twelve.

ONCE UPON A TIME there were queens—each year's top scorer in Yearbook Drive. Senior Prom Queen crowned P. Durso, attendants R. Sampagna, G. Dorsa, B. Defato, G. Quinlan, B. Boyle, J. Woods as the ones who did the "mostest" for the yearbook.

Basketball

"OH, NO, NOT AGAIN!" D. Jamate, A. Murphy and B. Townshend tense as Bishop's player scores another point for her team.

The Varsity did not always win—they're only two years old—but they always showed a wonderful spirit of good sportsmanship. They'll go down in school history as the team that "always played a good game." In a tussle with Saint Francis Xavier, the captain "Murph" scored 39. She and "Cap," forwards, and "Di" a guard, represented the Varsity in an "All-Star" game. Each won a sports "Oscar."

"BLOCK THAT BALL!" scream spectators as D. Jamate attempts to block dribbler from getting too near another victory in a game with Fontbonne.

"WE WON!" Team and cheerleaders go wild over their 42-41 victory in game with OLPH team. In a return game OLPH were the victors.

THE TEAM THAT'S ON THE BEAM! Y. Monahan, B. Townshend, M. Iquantia, M. McKay, B. Quinn, C. Russo, C. Tully, E. O'Reagan, D. Jamate, E. Cappadora, V. Higgins, E. O'Brien, A. Joy, A. Murphy—Captain, M. Powers, C. Saunders, K. Hirsch, M. Baxter.

THE LAST GAME. Basketball Coach Miss Antoinette Marciano receives corsage from team as cheerleaders cheer.

HOLD THAT WHISTLE! J. Cramer receives a trick pass as the referee signals a foul.

THEY WERE SAD, SAD SENIORS. During interim at the last game of the season corsaged Varsity and cheerleaders wept a LITTLE during the school song.

TUSSLE WITH FONTBONNE. A tense moment in the last quarter. Though varsity battled gloriously, they bowed in a 57-44 score.

VARSITY vs. JAY-VEE. Excitement exploded in game with the junior team. The scoring was a neck-and-neck variety. Varsity won by a 65-61 score.

BRENDAN'S vs. SAINT JOSEPH'S. It really went in this time, and we scored though we bowed to Brendanites by a 53-41 score.

TIME OUT. Whistle halts game as "refs" make with the signals.

NAZARETH HALL COURT. Fleet of foot Varsity bag baskets a-plenty during practices on home court.

Cheerleaders

PEP RALLY. Cheerleaders prime cheering squad of seniors and underclassmen in auditorium before one of their games.

AREN'T THEY HEP, THOUGH? P. Albert, R. Iacino, C. Sheehan, R. Faulkner, B. O'Brien, A. Amendola, J. Bongiorno, C. Towey, E. Casey, A. Zuccarelli, P. Mannix, M. Penna, M. Weeks, D. Temme, M. Carroll, M. Naughton.

"GO! GO! GO!" say high-steppers in the blue and white as they cheer for another score. And so they do during the quarter intermission of the Stella Maris game.

Resplendent in new, modish, blue and white separates, the cheerleaders enliven scene of every basketball game with their clever and original cheers and precision techniques. Pep rallies, constant practice and enthusiastic cooperation produced "perfection in performance."

"LET'S GO, JOSEPH'S, GO!" Cheerleaders go over one of their precision routines before a game to be played on Saint Joseph's court (Pacific Street).

"DECK THE HALLS," sing members of the Junior Glee Club as they entertain with Christmas Carols at the Brooklyn Savings Bank.

No time is dearer to the hearts of our students than the Christmas season. Besides indulging wholeheartedly in the holiday festivities — plays, cafeteria parties, mail boxes, gift exchanges, and a Christmas sale — the full significance of Christmastide is very evident. The message of the Christ Child is seen throughout the school — on bulletin boards, cribs in classroom and library, and in our beautiful Chapel where many of our girls may be seen in prayerful adoration.

Christmas is the time of year.

"I WON!" cries Maureen Black as her number is called at the toy booth during the Christmas Sale.

BEFORE THE TREE. Legionnaires from the combined Legions have fun at a dance held from three to six o'clock in the school auditorium.

Orchestra

*Harmony of
notes*

Weekly practice of our school orchestra occurs every Friday afternoon, in the Little Theater, under the direction of Mr. John Renner. The boom, boom, boom of the drum, the toot of the flute, the silvery tones of the string section blend harmoniously in Christmas carols, Irish Airs, classical and semi-classical selections.

CONCERT MISTRESS. N. Duehring leads violin section of Orchestra during Irish show on March 13, 1959.

PRACTICE MAKES PERFECT. With Mr. John Renner, Conductor, and Sister John Vianney, Moderator, are the '59 instrumentalists trying out a lively number. M. Dockerty, N. Duehring, E. Flynn, P. Hios, V. Di Gregorio, M. Cortoneo, M. McTeague, A. Amendolare, C. Cook, M. Sanchez, M. Hughes, P. Koch, L. Mazzola, P. McMillan, L. Holley, E. Scarpati, C. Michalski, R. Vono.

WE'RE ONLY POSING. Members of the Sophomore orchestra take time out from their Wednesday afternoon practice to pose for a picture. (Sitting) C. Petsch, B. Brunner, S. Sweeney, B. Buttermilche, K. Carney. (Standing) C. Tiernan, G. Mazzola, M. Jombach, V. McCann, A. Marshall, M. Vitale, A. Walker, R. Tobin, V. Siedel.

Irish Show

Bewitched by a "Little Lost Leprechaun" on the stage of Xaverian High School, Shore Road, was the audience on March 13—the night of the Irish Show—when Clancy, the little "lost one," popped out of a large box that had arrived from Uncle Terry of the "auld sod." Although the legendary elf failed to adjust himself in America, his nostalgia for merry Erin provided motivation for the appearance of his fellow-leprechauns in lively songs and dances.

Moderator Sister Rose Alonzo and Speech Instructor Miss Jeanne Renner directed cast and choral speaking group. Mr. John Renner, Conductor of the Orchestra, and Sister John Vianney, Moderator of Orchestra and Glee Club, were responsible for the splendid renditions of the groups' Irish repertoire. Paulette Hios, student conductor, accompanied and directed the Glee Club Ensemble in "A Little Bit of Heaven." Usherettes for the evening confirmed our opening statement about the audience—"Bewitched they were!"

LAST MINUTE PRETTYING. Two members of the Junior Glee Club, E. Capellini, C. Arbeeny, pretty-up, minutes before going on stage.

JUST TO GO BACK TO IRELAND. Sharon (M. Barrilla) and Tim (K. Saunders) listen to Clancy explain his home-sickness for the "Land of Shamrocks and Leprechauns."

IRISH JIG. Clancy (P. Hegedus), right, seems entranced with the antics of the dancing leprechauns, K. Curren, A. Sweeney, J. Thorpey, C. Ambrico, M. Gavigan.

The Peter Stuyvesant en route to Rye Beach shrills "last call" to scurrying girls toting loaded bags and other exciting paraphernalia. For the two-hour sail, G.O. officers plan dances, entertainment, and offer prizes to winners of contests. At Rye, there's enjoyment for souvenir scouters, the "happy-go" riders, merry munchers, and "off-the-excursion-boat-into-a-row-boat" girls.

SOAKING IN THE SUN are P. Gallagher, A. Giacola, P. Tormey, A. Trotta, E. Rump, M. Olsen, C. Volpe on the GOOD SHIP—PETER STUYVESANT.

A DREAM COMES TRUE . . . Seniors leave for Mass said for them in Saint Boniface Church, on day of Graduation—June 19th.

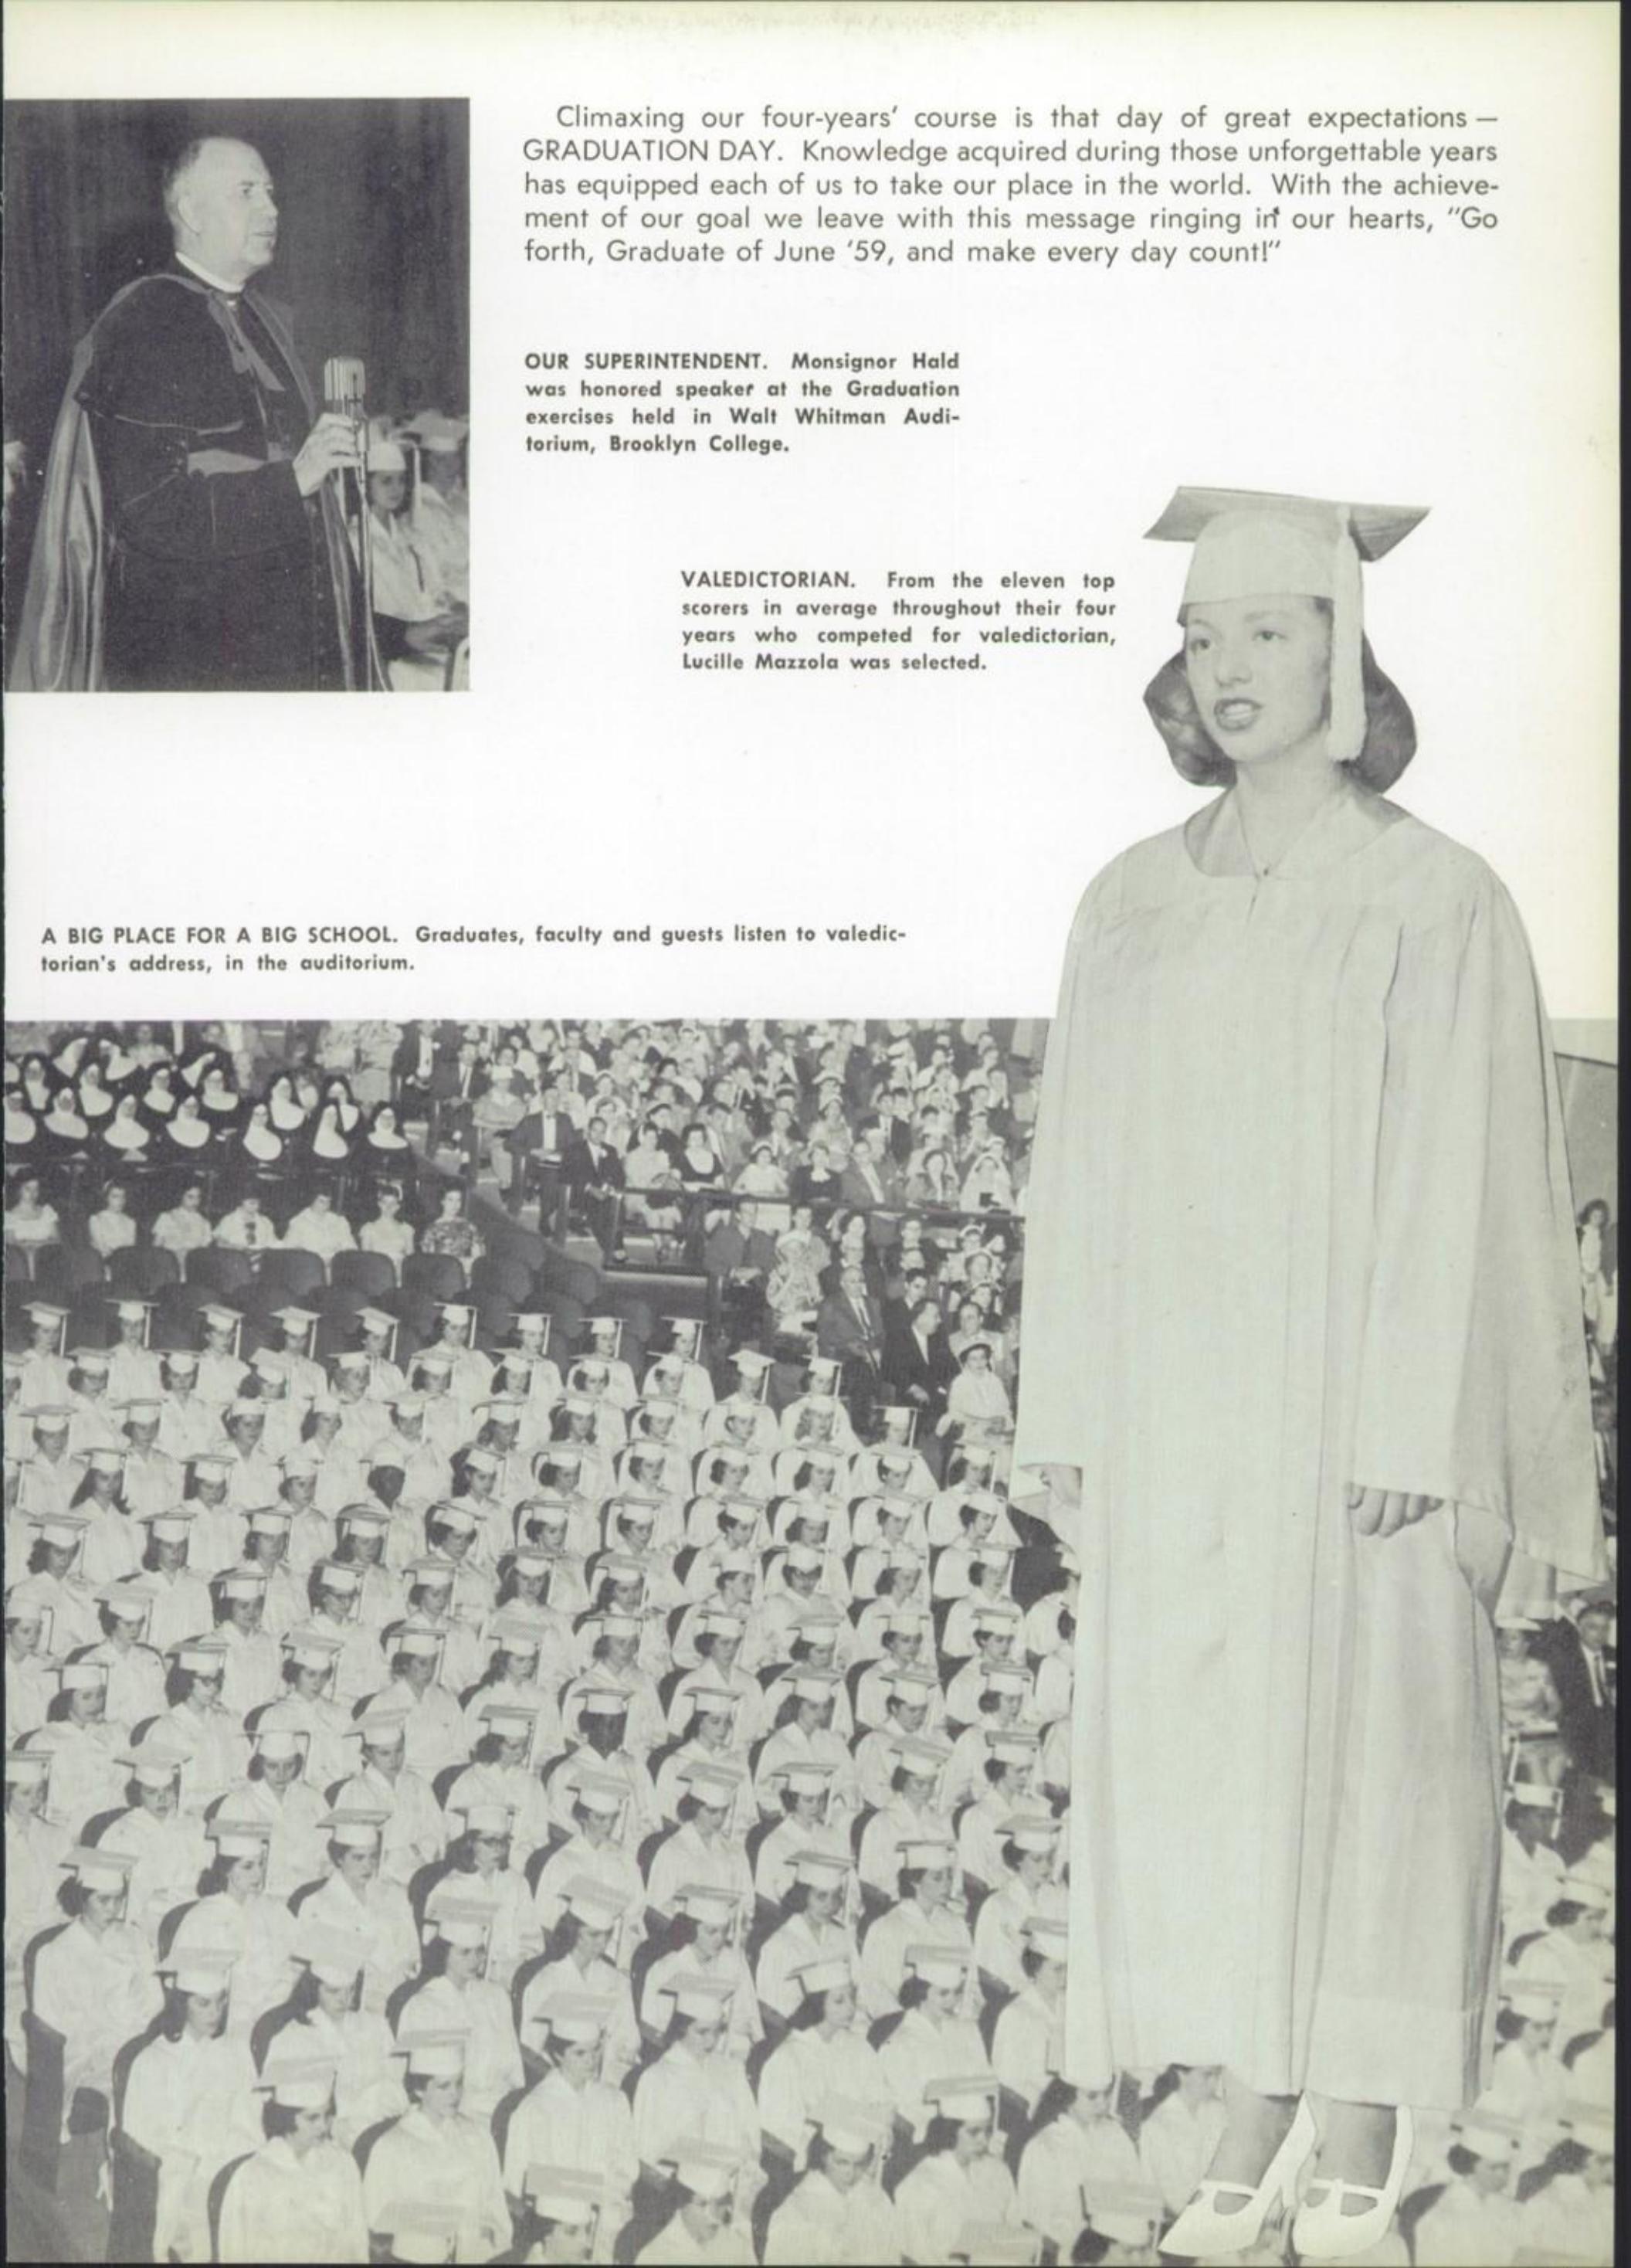

Graduation . . . a memorable event

A SOLEMN MOMENT. Holy Communion means holiness, and holiness spells happiness for our four hundred fifty-nine on their Graduation Day.

A FULL PRO-CATHEDRAL. Faculty, graduates, guests fill the Pro-Cathedral on graduation day.

Climaxing our four-years' course is that day of great expectations — GRADUATION DAY. Knowledge acquired during those unforgettable years has equipped each of us to take our place in the world. With the achievement of our goal we leave with this message ringing in our hearts, "Go forth, Graduate of June '59, and make every day count!"

OUR SUPERINTENDENT. Monsignor Hald was honored speaker at the Graduation exercises held in Walt Whitman Auditorium, Brooklyn College.

VALEDICTORIAN. From the eleven top scorers in average throughout their four years who competed for valedictorian, Lucille Mazzola was selected.

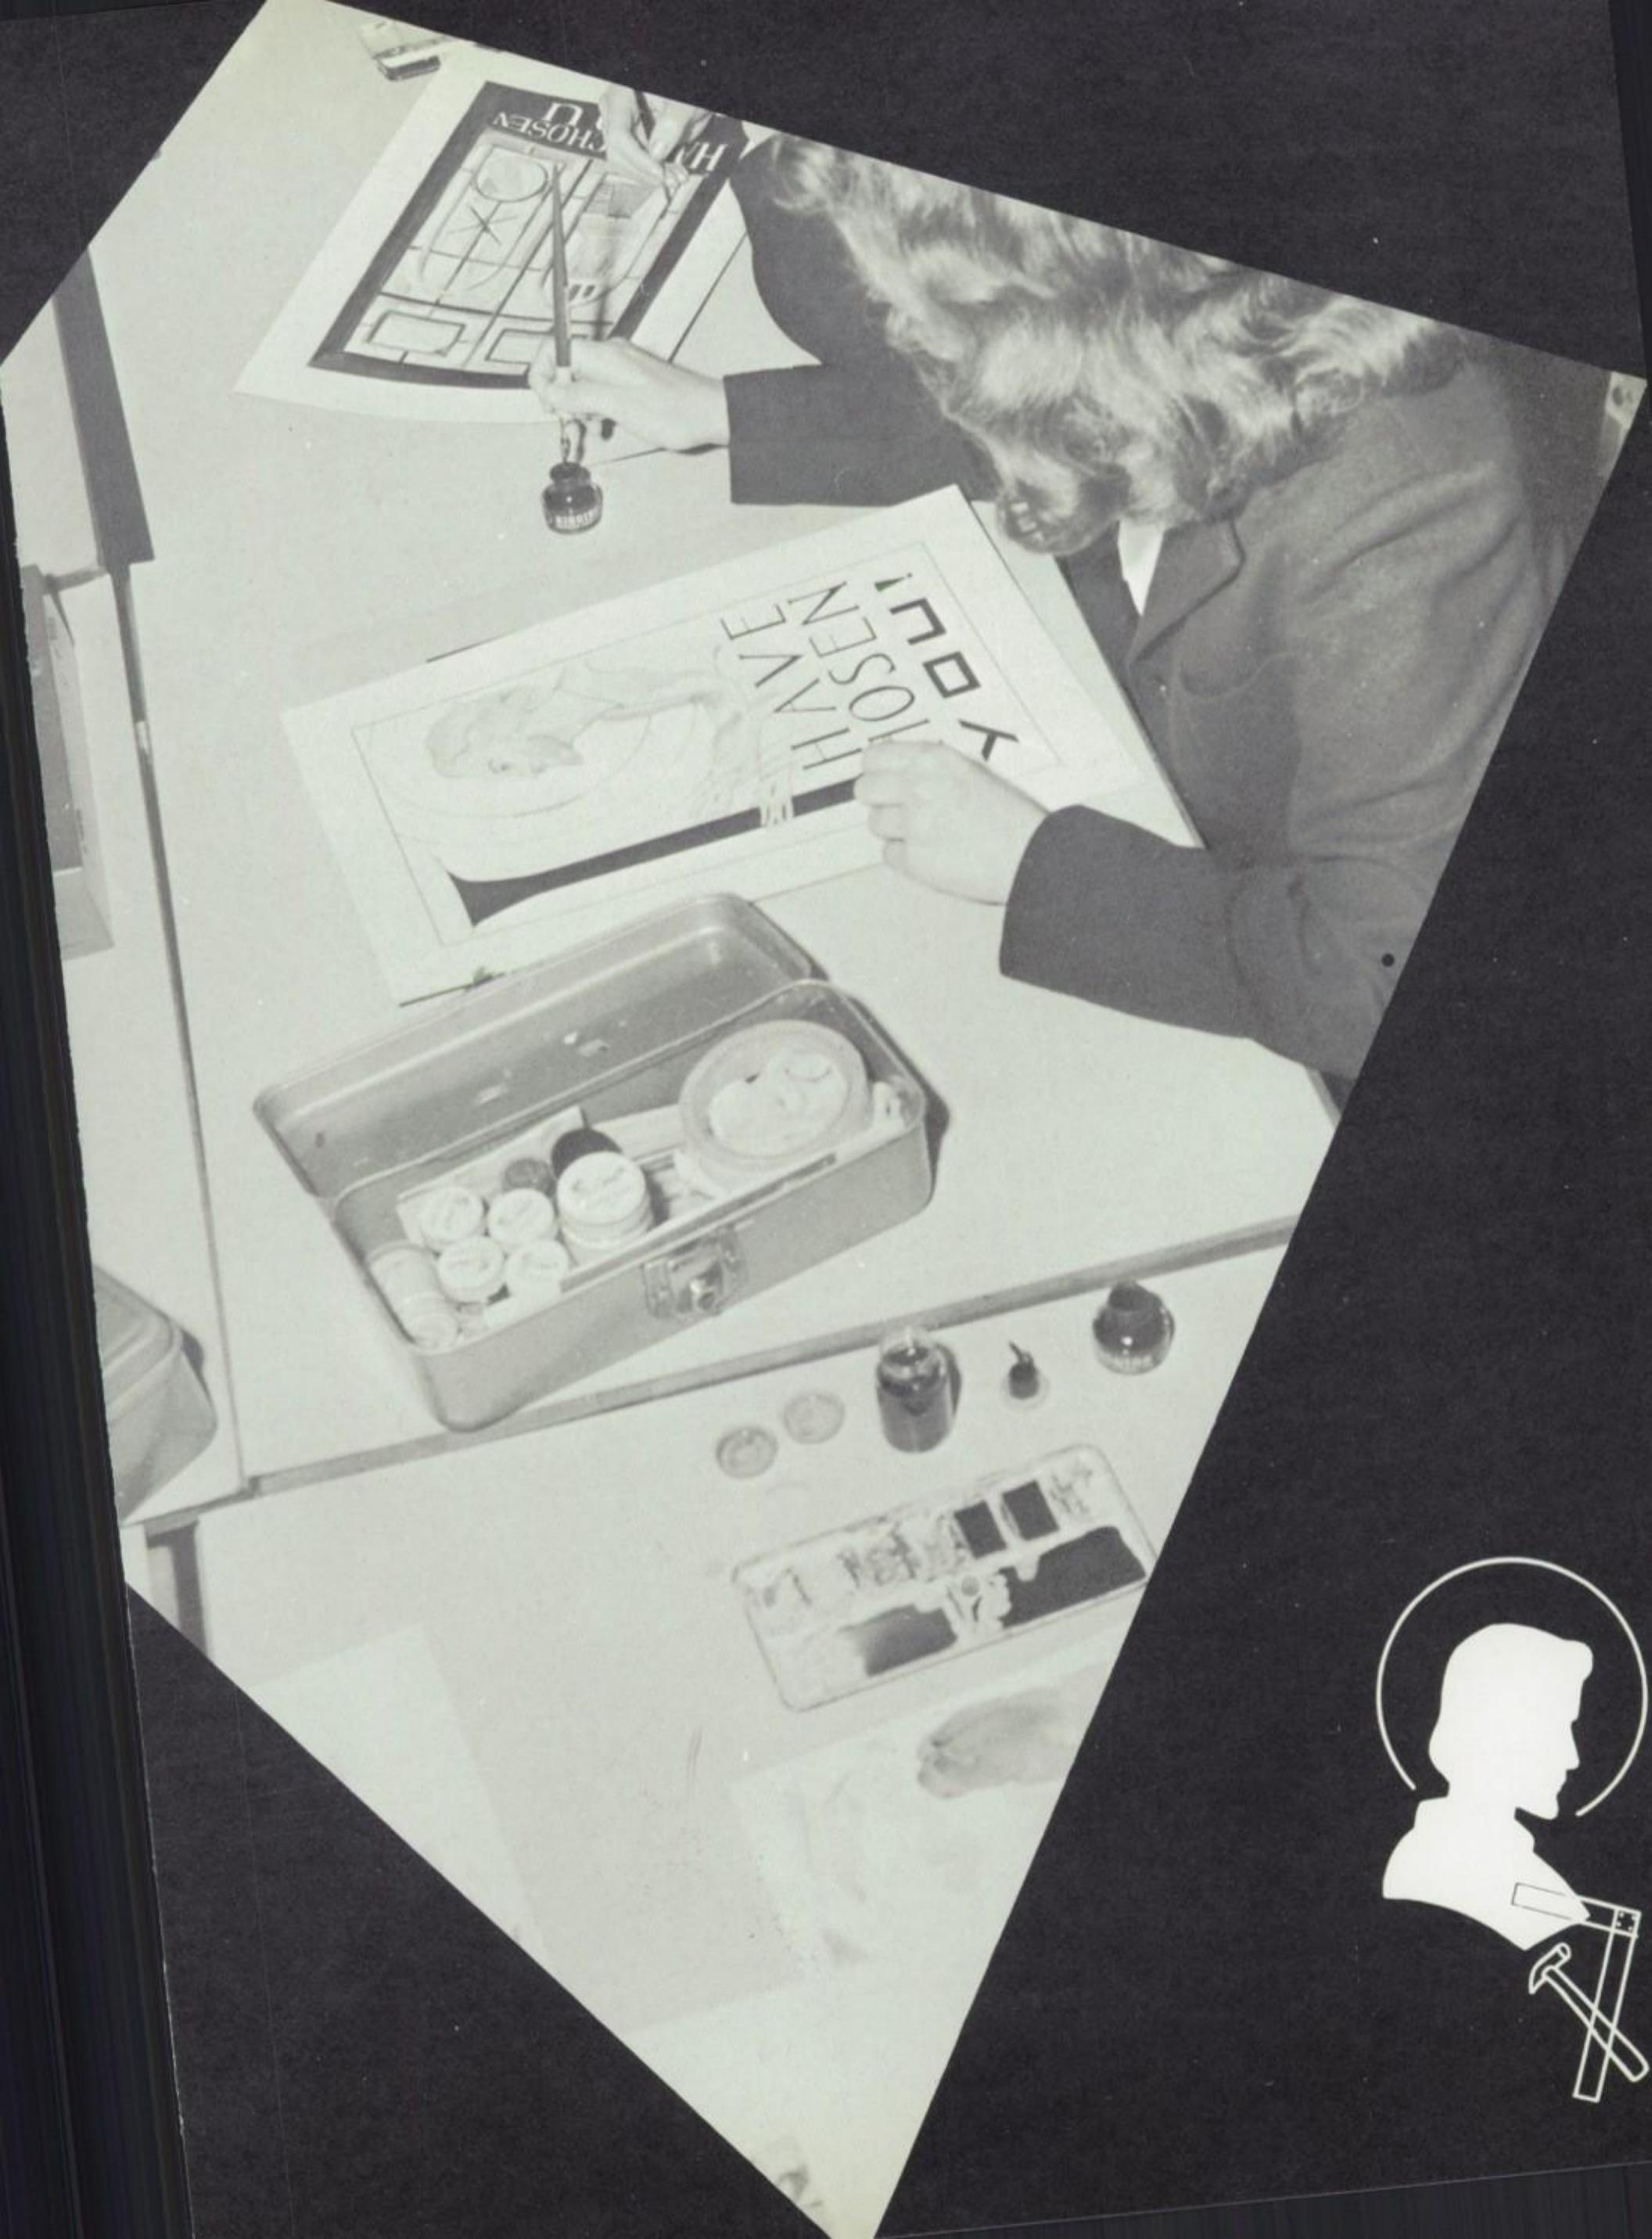

A BIG PLACE FOR A BIG SCHOOL. Graduates, faculty and guests listen to valedictorian's address, in the auditorium.

Legion of Mary

Catholic Action plays an important part in the lives of the students at Saint Joseph's. The activity which best fosters this interest and the desire to rise above the level of mediocre Catholicism is the Legion of Mary. Ten legions volunteer services to hospitals, missions, parishes, and school.

THE WORDS THAT NEVER DIE. Saying the Rosary are legionnaires from Sister M. Carita's Legion, Our Lady of Lourdes praesidium.

BRIEFING TREND. C. Kawaja, G. Latella, E. Baida, M. Ingargiola, P. Giordano, L. Mazzola give timely tips to J. Dinolfo, P. Schittina, P. Crump, J. Muller and A. Shepherd.

"How I wish that pin were mine!" That's the cry of some of our industrious high-scoring scholars who almost achieved one. To be inducted into the society, a student must not only have a high scholastic standing but must also be vouched for by her pastor for active Catholicism. These members who belong to the society are intellectually superior and score high in personality and refinement.

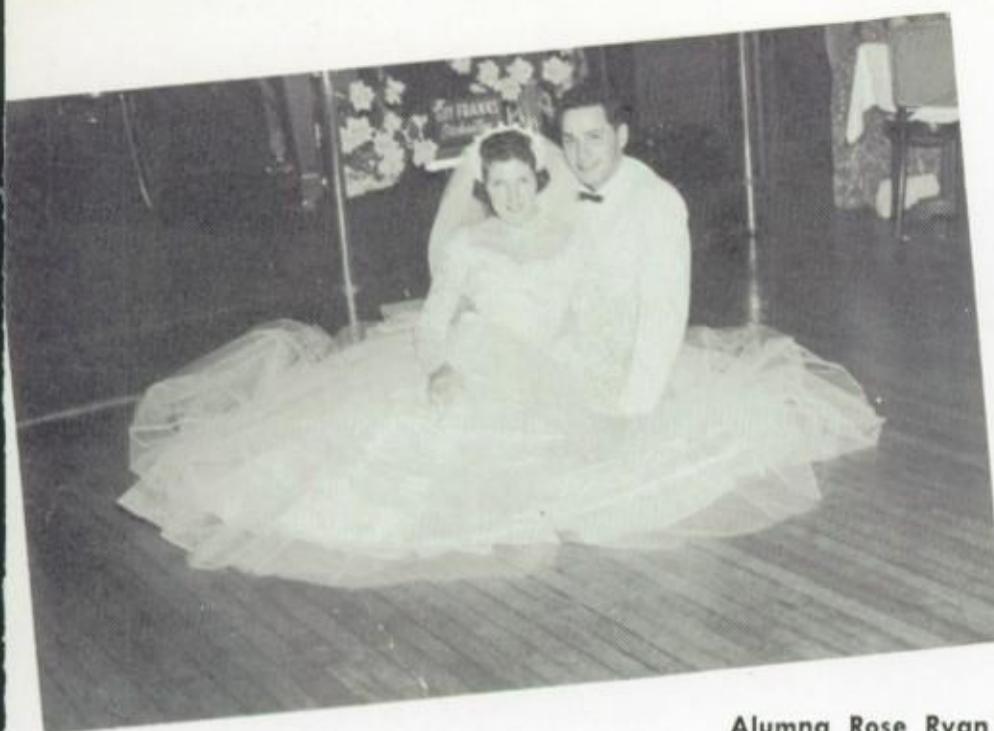

Guidance and Placement

BUSINESS BOUND. Sister Catherine Maria sends Nadine Miller with card of introduction as she prepares to apply for her first position.

Alumna Rose Ryan

Guidance and Placement play a stellar role in the life of the student body at Saint Joseph's. Sister Catherine Maria, Guidance Councillor, starts the year with a battery of aptitude, achievement, Henmon-Nelson I. Q. and National Merit Scholarship tests to determine eligibility of students in planning sequences for future careers. For those seeking a college education, a nursing career, or employment in business fields, Sister has organized a Career Club. Margaret Fox, president, and her staff of officers invite guest speakers weekly from major business firms to talk to the girls and to conduct panel discussion. For Preparation for Marriage there are Pre-Cana Conferences conducted by our priest faculty. Vocation films for those interested in nursing or teaching answer the need of those who have heard the whispered call of Christ, "Come Follow Me."

MUSIC HATH CHARMS. Junior Glee Club at Brooklyn Savings Bank: Student Director Paulette Hios, C. Riemma, B. Schardt, I. McPhelin, L. Capri, F. Parise, M. Hodgson, J. Sirica, M. Stella, B. Mazzarella, J. Conlon, C. Ambrico, M. Tammero, L. Rowe, A. Ronnessi, F. Attanasio, E. Cappilini, E. Sisk, M. Martinson.

WINGS OF SONG. The Sophomore Glee Club sings a high one as they entertain the graduates and their families.

Music influences tastes and forms a bridge to new friends. If you should be on the second floor on any Wednesday or Friday afternoons, you'll be "sent" by the haunting harmonies of the variety repertoire of the Junior and Sophomore Glee Clubs—"No Man Is An Island," "Barcarolle," "The Heavens Are Declaring," "Hello, Young Lovers," Christmas carols, Irish Airs and the rhythms of the "lazy" blues.

During Christmastide, the Junior Glee Club entertained at the Brooklyn Savings Bank. Both Junior and Sophomore Glee Clubs will perform at the Irish Show, the Spring Concert and at Graduation.

"ALL TOGETHER NOW!" says Student Director P. Hios as she rehearses junior harmonizers F. Gaglioti, I. McPhelin, F. Parisi, M. Libera, accompanist, is at the piano.

Art is a Major Sequence, but it doesn't stop there for, we have an Art Club to exercise latent talents of aspiring artists. Courtesy, basketball and reminder posters, bulletin board displays—remember the Christmas ones? — and projects were all executed by those dainty daubers of the club.

Stroll into the Art Room any day—you will receive a liberal education in Moderator Sister Maria Jude's bulletin displays of the "masterpieces of the masters" that line the walls.

WEEKLY DISPLAYS. Balance is achieved by application of the principles learned by practice. C. Cosenza, C. Mongeon, R. Grambling, K. Higgins.

EASTER-PARADE IN ART. Bulletin boards, coming events, basketball games, dances, and anything you can name is the challenge for which the Art Club has a special talent.

WORKING WITH WIRES. They didn't blow a fuse yet and they won't for their constant association and familiarity with wires has taught them caution.

For those interested in knowing what makes air air and what makes frogs and grasshoppers tick, we have our Science Club. Moderator Sister Mary Genevieve directs activity, sparks science-bent minds and stirs avid curiosity.

At meetings held every Tuesday and Thursday, in the Parmentier laboratory, members work with slides, do experiments, sculpture and paint plaster models, and enjoy up-to-the-minute films. Do you want to join?

WEDNESDAY SCIENCE CLUB—M. Barrese, S. Carroll, E. D'Aragon, D. Del Guidice, C. Eppler, O. Ghosn, M. Gless, C. Golinski, G. Guella, S. Hassan, M. Hickey, J. Kennelly, M. Kerrigan, C. Kollert, M. Le Benz, G. Lenhart, R. Mazzello, M. McStoker, A. Napoli, S. Rogers, K. Riccio, E. Todter.

"We've done it again!" Parmentier earned the permanent Format Trophy from the Diocesan Catholic Press Association for the second time—the first time was in 1950 when it was a quarterly—and now in 1958 as a monthly. Three other prizes were awarded its staff at the Press Conference held in Bishop McDonnell auditorium—the Editor-in-Chief prize, Anita Milaccio '58 Editor; Poetry Prize, Carol La Plante; First Honors in Photography, Barbara Kempczinska.

VILLANOVA BOUND. G. Di Fiore, E. Albano, A. Amendola, Sister Miriam Cecilia, R. Scala, R. Cataldo, Sister Edward Marguerite have a few spare minutes to spare before train time. They're to attend Press Day at the college.

PROUD AND HAPPY. At the Catholic Press Awards Conference, the Parmentier staff of the '58 monthly newspaper won four awards. The Yearbook staff was proud and happy they were there to share their happiness and to applaud their efforts.

"Staff meeting today!" And so, a yearbook is launched. Page plans, photography schedules for senior album, activity shots, commercial-academic shots and meeting deadlines tax ingenuity of staff editors for they have a standard to maintain — "All Catholic" — CSPA; First Honors — SCPA, NSPA.

As page by page unfolds and our book comes to life, our staff thrills to the knowledge of achievement—the '59 Yearbook is complete. We had our moments producing this edition, we hope you have yours enjoying it.

We wish to thank Sophomore Alice Phelan whose drawings of Saint Joseph grace our theme pages and divider pages for her valued services.

"IT'S IN THIRD POSITION," says E. Higgins, Yearbook stenographer, as she reads back notes for copy on her page.

"GOOD NIGHT, SISTER." Sister Jeanne Gertrude bids Good Night to President Mary (McCabe) Egan and Secretary Anna Russo after a night spent planning the year's social program to be presented at the first meeting of the Alumnae.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot?" Of course not! Our Alumnae evidences their great cooperative spirit by their loyal and active participation in the year's activities. In October, Moderator Sister Jeanne Gertrude and officers Mary (McCabe) Egan, Anna Russo and Rosemary Cantwell arranged for a Retreat Day. December was the month that the Alumnae played Santa Claus by distributing mountains of Christmas presents to children in parishes adjacent to the school. A successful Buffet Supper was enjoyed in November, and, at this writing, plans for a Spaghetti Dinner are under way. The Alumnae Mass and Communion Breakfast is the banner affair that climaxes the annual activity program.

O God, Who amongst Thy Apostolic Priests didst adorn Thy servant, Edmund, with episcopal dignity, grant, we beseech thee, that he may be associated with them in everlasting fellowship.

May the Angels lead him into Paradise,
May the Martyrs receive him at thy coming and take him to the Holy City, and May the Choirs of the Angels receive him.

Amen.
